Rococo Timpani

The highlight of the late 18th Century!

Item-#: Rokoko

Detailed information can be found at www.lefima.de

These timpani represent lightly and subtly throughout the "Style Rocaille" of the first half of the 18th Century with regards to the design. Both, the flirtatious eye-piercing tension screws and the hardware, mirror with noble-tender sensuality the playful elegance of the ornamentation of shell and foliage.

Gold toned hardware and the light-copper antique patina harmonize with the subtle light-footed life of Rococo. This matches also the accentuated shorter sound, caused by the "narrow" hoops of gold-coloured flat steel and the slightly shallower bowls. Through their specially cut fine thread the tension screws operate extremely smoothly even at higher head tension. A technology accessory of the 21st Century as a tribute to the timpanist. ...
