This single headed drum is not only lighter but also much louder than common models and can be tuned at a lower pitch. It is also best suitable for the usage as bass tom.

“In time immemorial of our forefathers, at a world still inhabited by the gods, Wieland the forger created the legendary sword of Mimiung. Though Waldir, son of Wieland, was of daintier shape and couldn’t take pleasure of his fathers rough profession. However he loved the fine arts, was delighted by the Maidens and by a subterfuge he succeeded to take possession of the ore, which was excavated by dwarfes and other light-shunning shapes in ...

However he loved the fine arts, was delighted by the Maidens and by a subterfuge he succeeded to take possession of the ore, which was excavated by dwarves and other light-shunning shapes in the most sinistred deeps of Utgard.

Nevertheless Waldir didn't craft a weapon, but crafted a drum, whose sugary sounds charmed elves and fairies and was able to allure the most beautiful women.”

A drum him to subjugate, to prevent men from evil fate
